InLine Storage net for under-desk mounting, black

InLine Storage net for under-table mounting, black:

The InLine storage net for under-table installation is used for the structured organization of cables and power supplies directly under the tabletop. It supports a tidy appearance and improves clarity in workstations.

The storage net enables clean cable routing and helps to bundle loose cables clearly. The generous storage space allows several cables and accessories to be stored centrally under the table. This leaves more space in the work area.

The simple installation allows for quick integration and easy retrofitting of existing desks. The flame-resistant material contributes to a safe workplace design.
